

1875

A Hurricane hit Wallisville, Tx. It was ranked as one of the greatest storms ever to hit the Tx Gulf Coast.

The Wind & rain started on Sept. 15 and when the citizens of Wallisville awoke, they found the Trinity River 10 feet above normal.

The 2nd disaster in 1875 in Wallisville was the burning of the wooden courthouse.

most of the land records were destroyed
causing problems in the Co. for decades.
It was suspected arsonists burned the courthouse to destroy land titles
recently filed by blacks.
